INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the San Ysidro Community Plan Update Advisory Committee (Update Committee) was for staff to provide an overview of the components of the community plan, organization of the Elements of the plan, and review public input to date and provide an opportunity for additional input on Land Use, Economic Prosperity, Conservation and Public Facilities. This information will help inform the future land use and policy decisions for the plan update.

Meeting handouts included:

The meeting was called to order by Michael Freedman, Chair of the San Ysidro Community Planning Group and a member of the San Ysidro Community Plan Update Advisory Committee.

BACKGROUND

The City of San Diego is updating the San Ysidro Community Plan (SYCP) through an in-depth, community-based planning process. To find out more about the SYCP update, upcoming meetings and information presented at past meetings, including copies of past presentations please visit the San Ysidro Community Plan Update website at:

AGENDA ITEMS

Michael Freedman opened the meeting at 6:15 and turned it over to Sara Lyons with the City Planning & Community Investment Department. The presentation included a brief discussion on the update's schedule and process and the structure and outline of the new planning document. The majority of the presentation was reviewing public comment in the context of the Land Use Element, Economic Prosperity Element, Public Facilities, Services & Safety Element and Conservation Element.

The Conservation Element was presented by Nancy Bragado, Principal Planner with City Planning & Community Investment Department and provided a detailed discussion on sustainability issues, water resources, air quality, greenhouse gas emissions and the role of CEQA for the update.

Following each Element discussion was an opportunity for additional public input. The public input was charted at the meeting and summarized in Attachment 1.
